

The Top 5 Romantic Honeymoon Resorts

I have brought together the following list of the very best honeymoon locations anywhere to assist you in choosing the perfect spot for your trip.

So let's move right on to my choices for the 5 top honeymoon resorts in the world:

5. Four Seasons Punta Mita, Mexico

This resort is on my list due to its excellent service -- maybe the best anywhere. The location is incredible, the grounds are impeccably kept, the food is world-class, the beach is wonderful, and the views... well you simply have to see them to appreciate them. But it is the service that really makes this hotel so great. The wonderful staff will cater to your every need and ensure that you experience the most amazing, memorable, and romantic honeymoon possible.

4. Las Ventanas al Paraiso, Cabo San Lucas, Mexico

This honeymoon resort is simply elegant. Situated in one of the most beautiful locations in all of Cabo, Las Ventanas has world-class accommodations, facilities, dining, and service. It's the kind of place where you are likely to rub elbows with celebrities, and the level of service is bound to make you feel like a movie star yourself. For anyone considering a Mexico honeymoon, this is the perfect spot.

3. Little Dix Bay, Island of St. John, B.V.I.

The best place to stay in the wonderful British Virgin Islands, Little Dix has everything you could possibly want in a romantic resort - incredible service, stunning beaches, amazing facilities, and that laid-back ambiance that makes for the very best honeymoons.

2. Four Seasons Hualalai, Big Island of Hawaii

Possibly the perfect resort for honeymooners that love golf (and even those who don't), this Four Seasons hotel has an incredible location, great facilities, world class golf courses, and the level of impeccable service you'd expect from a Four Seasons property. The Four Seasons resort on Hawaii's Big Island could just be the finest resort in all of Hawaii.

1. Caneel Bay, St. John, U.S. Virgin Islands

Caneel Bay is situated in an amazing and beautiful spot on an absolutely perfect tropical bay. The turquoise waters here are the most stunningly beautiful anywhere in the world, and the hotel itself is amazing too. Surrounded by a lush U.S. national Park, Caneel Bay has an out-of-the-way feel, yet it is a ferry ride away from the excitement of St. Thomas. Caneel Bay really has the best of both worlds. You'll find that the place is amazing and romantic, simply an ideal spot to have your honeymoon or your romantic getaway.
